They Were So Young: Montrealers Remember World War II

By Patricia Burns, Desmond Morton

Vehicule Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, They Were So Young: Montrealers Remember World War II, Patricia Burns, Desmond Morton, After visiting her cousin's grave in the Canadian military cemetery at Bretteville-sur-Laize in Normandy, Patricia Burns returned to Montreal with a determination to record the stories of veterans of World War II. These stories of young men and women who served in the army, navy and air force illustrate the raw courage, youthful bravado, and sacrifice needed to defeat a powerful enemy. Some served on the home front; others, who returned from the theatre of war, were never the same again. Moving accounts from family members of veterans -- sons, daughters, wives, and siblings -- reveal the price they also paid in this most horrible war. Introduced are a young bride who spent her first three wedding anniversaries alone while her husband languished in the POW camp, Stalag Luft III, and took part in the doomed escape which was made into the movie, The Great Escape; a ship's stoker who feared not being able to escape a torpedo attack which would mean either instant death or a horrible death by scalding; the daring pilot who became a priest after...
