Now the halls are alive with Trekkies, tech nerds, and fantasy gamers in their Viking finery; *all of them eager to hail their hero, bestselling fantasy author Appin Dungannon: a diminutive despot whose towering ego more than compensates for his 5 1 height . . . and whose gleeful disdain for his fawning fans is legendary.Hurling insults and furniture with equal abandon, the terrible, tiny author proceeds to alienate ersatz aliens and make-believe warriors at warp speed. But somewhere between the costume contest and the exhibition Dungeons Dragons game, Dungannon gets done in. While die-hard fans of Dungannon s seemingly endless sword-and-sorcery series wonder how they ll go on and hucksters wonder how much they can get for the dead man s autograph, a hapless cop...
