Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Seventh Yearbook of the National Society for the Scientific Study of Education, Vol. 1: Relation of Superintendents and Principals, to the Training and Professional Improvement of Their Teachers Three years ago the subject of the Seventh Yearbook was proposed as an important field for the National Society to investigate. Since that time several of the ablest and most progressive superintendents in the United States have made positive advance in the solution of the problems involved in the relation of superintendents and principals to the training and improvement of their teachers. That the study presented in this Yearbook should have been made by one who has been connected with the movement at perhaps its most active storm center is fortunate for manifest reasons. Charles D. Lowry has been a district superintendent of schools in Chicago for about seven years, and therefore has the insight necessary to interpret the reports sent in from all parts of the United States and select and classify and estimate the value of data contained in such reports. It is hoped...
