Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Poems of the Town A Message Of The Town. Look up to the stony arches Where art and mammon meet, There s a sound where Traffic marches A call in the city street, For a voice is ever ringing Gird up your loins and flee, I will harden your heart or break it If you will abide with me. Go forth with a noble yearning, Give heed to the griefs of men, And the years will find you turning To that mocking voice again, Which ever recurrent whispers Like the chant of the restless sea, I will harden your heart or break it If you will abide with me. No time for the touch of gladness Nor yet for the boon of tears, We toss in a cloud of madness Whirled round by the whirling years; And an echo lingers always From which we are never free, I will harden your heart or break it If you will abide with me.
