CROSSWAY BOOKS, United States, 2015. Pamphlet. Book Condition: New. 137 x 86 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. You don t have to be a member of the Lonely Hearts Club to be looking for love. All of us--whether we re fifteen or fifty, handsome or homely, married or single--need the kind of love that makes life worth living. You know what I m talking about. You want some-one to make you feel glad that you re alive. Someone to love you--not for how you look or what you can do--but for just being you. You want a love you can depend on when everyone else has failed you. Unfortunately that kind of love is hard to find. Turn on your radio and someone will be singing about the lover who let him down. Tune to a talk show and a daughter reveals the painful memory of a father who never loved her. The problem is universal. In some way we ve all been wounded in our search for love. The good news is that there is a love that can heal any broken heart. A love that you don t have to earn. An unconditional love that is stronger than any hu-man love. God is the source of that love. When our lives are open to him, God s love can flow to us and through us to others. But when sin separates us from him life is an emotional roller coaster. One day we feel loved; the next day we don t. God s love is so great that he sent his own Son to bridge the gap that separates us from him. The Bible says, God demonstrates his own love for us in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us (Romans 5:8). That...
