Consider it a great joy.whenever you experience various trials (James 1:2) What if your blessings come through raindrops? What if your healing comes through tears? There s no denying some of the blessings in Laura Story s life. As the songwriter of the #1 Worship Hit, Indescribable, recorded by Chris Tomlin in 2004, she married her high school sweetheart, Martin Elvington the following year. She then began working in music and women s ministry at the 4,000-member Perimeter Church in Atlanta. After signing an artist deal with INO Records, her 2008 national debut won a Dove Award for Inspirational Album and earned Laura two consecutive nominations for Female Vocalist of the Year all blessings, indeed! But amidst that success, a brain tumor hospitalized her husband in 2006. They faced the strong chance their long-awaited bond might last just two years. The faith Laura sang about was put through the unexpected fires of fear and loneliness; most young newlyweds don t imagine being kept alive at one point by breathing machines or having to find their way through significant post-operative vision and memory loss. Could blessings really be found in such a life-altering struggle? Laura s song, Blessings, suggest that they can. Life is filled with things you don t expect, but the Bible tells us to respond by trusting God and continuing to worship Him, Story begins. Martin hasn t received complete healing and that can be hard at times when we view God as all-powerful and all-loving. But here we are now saying, Yes, this is how faith works. God has proven to be faithful. We have been truly blessed out of a circumstance...
