Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 175 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Protecting Your Treasure contains a lesson often learned the hard way as we are sometimes forgetful of our age and role--with a simple no, the regret of having sex before being mature enough to endure its complications can be avoided. Sex at an early age is a slippery slope, which can leave self-esteem extremely low. While some choose paths that avoid the pitfalls of underage sex, others have seen devastating effects of sexual promiscuity. Some have been able to move forward through adulthood with dignity and integrity, but many have fallen into the traps of low self-esteem, social stigmatization, and even depression and other self-destructive behavior. But thanks to Protecting Your Treasure and its guiding quotes, you won't have to suffer such pain. Remember, A heart nurtured and protected flowers into a garden of love and respect.
