But we may pass on to note how, true to the methods in which they had been schooled, all these writers find symbols and intimations ready to their hand in authorised Scripture as well. The ancient texts lent themselves as easily to Christian as to Jewish interpretation. The rival faiths feathered their arrows with the same arguments. There was no event or character in Old Testament history, no rite or ordinance, sacred act or sacred object, which could not in the skilled hands of such expounders serve as types 1 Eph. i. 21. ii. 2. vi. 12.
